

Ask the Unicorn Live - Episode 7
Airdate 11/13/13

Blog Talk Radio

("Zwingin" by Ahura Z. Diliiza plays)

Announcer:

You're listening to Ask The Unicorn Live with Ahura Z. Diliiza, answering all your paranormal, metaphysical and spiritual questions. Call us now at 718 664 9638 to speak with Ahura or post your questions via chat room on our show page. And now your host, Ahura Z.!

Ahura:

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, I'm Ahura Z. And how are you this evening? I hope you all are having a very positive time. Welcome to Ask The Unicorn, you are live with me. For those of you that can call in, the number is (718) 664-9638. For those of you that have questions, I will do my best to answer any and all questions that you have, so long as they are pertaining to the metaphysical, the spiritual, the paranormal, and the mystical. For those of you that have questions about personal matters, that is fine. I'm willing to answer any of those questions. However, I must make my weekly statement that tells you that I'm not willing to answer any questions about someone's death or whether or not they're going to die or personal relationship questions such as, "Is my husband or my wife cheating on me?" I will not answer those questions under any circumstances whatsoever. For those of you that are skeptics, no I will not guess what you have in your pocket. For those of you that don't believe in the mystical, the magical, or the paranormal, you really have no business being here. For those of you that are open to any type of religion or any type of spirituality that is positive in its nature, you are welcome here and I hope you tell your friends about it because we are here every single week and we love what we do here.

Anyway, I want to talk to you about a few things this evening and I'll kind of make it the topic. Learning and understanding different people or different types of spirituality or different spiritual walks. I think that we need to, as people, open our understanding realm or open our wellspring of understanding so that we can accept every single religion or every single spiritual walk as being valid and being here. I know that there are a lot of people that don't agree with some religious standpoints and do agree with others and I think that this is an appropriate topic because I've been kind of looking at different beliefs all week and I really do like the way that people reach out to other people and I hope that we all do that because in this particular world we could use a bit of spiritual understanding and universal thought. Anyway, what I'm going to do is open the floor for a moment to some questions and let's get right under them, I'm here this evening with Kazi, Kazi say hello.

Kazi:

Hello! Welcome to Ask The Unicorn!

Ahura:

And we're having a great time here so let's get right to the questions. What do you got?

00:03:25

Kazi:

This first question is from 'R'. "My friend passed away, I had dreams that made me feel inclined to help them in death, though their death was unexpected. I feel strange forces of an extremely oppositional nature around them that seem to be holding me back from checking to see if they are okay and to give them guidance. However, I have had dreams where they make it to a more grounded place years before. This is my only comfort into what is currently happening. I want to help but I'm not certain how without putting myself in harm's way."

Ahura:

If you're not certain without putting yourself in harm's way, it's best that you back out of that particular realm and think about what you're really doing. You're talking about helping someone on a spiritual realm or in the realm on the other side but you have absolutely no clue as to what it is that you're doing or how to do it. At that particular time, I think that you need to realize that there is no time or space in the spiritual realm. So you have plenty of time to train yourself or find someone that is capable of training you and then you will be able to help. But for right now, though, you're not going to get an instant answer, there's no such things. There are ways to help your friend but you have to learn the right ways first. This is not like baking a cake, you can't just read the instructions and hope to go out and do what it is that you say that you wanna do, you have to take some time. For those of you that believe that you can become a master overnight, you are severely deluding yourself. There's no such thing as a thirteen year old Reiki Master because a thirteen year old barely knows how to keep his pants dry. So, you're going to have to take a long time to master anything. Especially if you're looking to help in the spiritual realm, it's going to take almost a lifetime of experience, even when you reach a certain age and you're doing these things diligently, you understand that you're merely an adept and still a student of the universe and therefore the only master are those that have mastered time and space themselves and quite frankly, that's very, very, very few of us though. Don't feel like you'll fail your friend. There's no time and space in the spiritual realm so you have plenty of time to train yourself or to get some type of training. Just take your time, don't panic. Don't feel as though there are forces that are trying to stop you from learning because they're not. There may be those out there that are willing to back you and those out there that are not willing to back you but you're going to have to be the strong person and find those things that you need to find in order to help the way that you say you want to help. So my suggestion to you, get trained first, get educated first, and then see what you can do. Let's go ahead and go to another question.

00:06:12

Kazi:

Next question is from Anabelle. She says, "Jupiter is in now retrograde. Since it governs financial matters, needless to say, this sucks. Is there anything we can do to offset this influence?"

Ahura:

Yes, stop looking at it like it sucks. You can't draw any amount of positivity to you unless you're willing to be positive from the get-go. To look at everything in a very dim light merely gives you dim light. If you know that Jupiter is in retrograde right now, that means there's an opportunity for you to build up a certain force in order to be slingshot-ed ahead when it goes direct. However, my first answer holds true. As long as you're being negative, it's going to be a negative experience. You've gotta find a way to dig deep and be that positive person somehow. Even if you can't be positive, just be neutral and understand that we all go through some pretty tough times, but there's always a light. At some point in time, the opportunity will come and if you're being negative, you won't see the opportunity. However, if you're being positive and you're staying there and understanding that we all have to be warriors at this time and age, you will meet the bus as soon as it comes to the bus stop. So, remember, stay positive, find a way to stay positive. There are things that you know you can do in order to be positive, just make sure that you are. And remember it's just a cloud. There's always a beautiful day out there and all of a sudden, there's a cloud that happens to be right where the sun is just to come along and give you a little difficulty in your day. But if you look at it hard enough and you concentrate hard enough and you wait and just show a little bit of patience, that cloud will pass. And so shall your difficulty. So just stay positive, okay? Alright, lets move onto something new and different.

Kazi:

Another question, alright.

Ahura:

Yes, definitely.

00:08:12

Kazi:

Next question comes from Zanda. "Good evening, I was curious to hear your perspective on psychic abilities and what they actually are in comparison to the beliefs and expectations that people have. On that same note, I would like to hear your thoughts about readers and what their job actually is."

Ahura:

That's pretty good, and by the way that's Zanda? Beautiful name. Well, Zanda let me tell you, those are some pretty good questions so I'm going to answer them in reverse. In other words, I'm going to answer the last question first. What a reader's job basically is, is not to think for a person or to make up certain things or try to get them into a cryptic maze or anything like that. A reader's job is to point the way, in other words, help a person to navigate their way through what is coming from them. There are events that have passed in a person's life and events that happening now and events that will happen. What a reader's job is, is to point out those things and then give that person the opportunity to either meet the universe on the street corner that the universe is asking them to or to not meet the universe on the street corner that the universe is asking them to. In other words, I can sit up all day and tell you that you will win the lottery. But then, if I do that then I have the responsibility of telling you which lottery, what day it's going to be made, and give you the numbers at the same time, which is virtually impossible when you're talking about the future. Anyone who believes that they have guessed what the numbers of the lottery are because of their being so psychic or having some kind of skill is seriously again, deluding themselves because there are millions of us telepaths and psychics that can say, "Hey, I can see where you lost your keys, I never have been to your house, or I can tell you things of the future." But you know, it's the funniest thing, when I get down to thinking about what those the numbers are and the lottery thing, I either miss them all by one, or they just don't come up or the day that I don't play the lottery is the exact day that my numbers come up, it's just kind of like that, and it's like that with almost anything in our future.

So here's what a reader's job is. A reader sees an event that is coming or the energy of an event that is coming. A reader has a choice of telling you exactly what's going to happen or somewhat what is going to happen, and then says, "Look, if you want to either avoid this or you want to fulfill this, then here's what you should do." And what you should do. Not say things like, "There's snow on the mountain top." And you have absolutely no clue what that means. Or to say something like, "You know someone in your life who's name begins an R... an R... an R..." Cause you know lots of people who's names begins with R and that doesn't really do anything for you, all you're gonna do is pick the first one that you can bring to mind or, "Someone's name begins with B... a B... a B... Beauford?" You can come up with almost any name. That's not the job of a psychic or a reader or a telepath, that's not our job. Our job is merely to help you to light up those things that need to be lit. In other words, if I see a dangerous event coming for you, my job isn't to scare you and say, "Hey you're gonna fall off of this cliff if you go to the corner of Crenshaw and Florence!" No, that's not what I'm suppose to do. What I'm suppose to do is just tell you, I see some negative things that are coming up, however, if you'd like to avoid those negative things, this is what you should do and then give you precise instructions. That is our job. "I see some very positive things coming up for you, this is going to happen, or maybe this, and how about if you need for this to happen, this is what you're gonna have to do." That's our job. That's what we're suppose to do. To tell you that someone is going to die is one of the rudest things you can possibly do to a person. It borderlines on evil because at that particular moment, you have scared that person, you have caused them to be paranoid, you have caused them to be confused, and you have caused them a lack of sleep and a lack of rest and you have caused them a lack of peace. At that particular moment, you are guilty of harming that person. You can't do that. You merely have to guide the person and tell them, "Listen, we need to do this." And if that person asks why, you just look at them you can say, "There's some negative events that I see coming up and I think that we can totally avoid them if we do this." Or if the person comes to you and says, "Hey, I had this dream and in this dream this and this and this happened." And you can explain to them, "Okay, I understand that you saw this particular person but because you saw this particular person doesn't mean that it is, it's merely a representation, or the energy that you saw represented itself in this particular fashion."

The job of a reader is to help you to navigate. Help you to avoid certain pitfalls and help you to meet certain benefits. That's our job. Our job is not to make up things. Our job is not to sound cryptic, although we do have a habit of doing that, I've come into the company of some very, very profound readers and some very, very wonderful readers that sometimes, we sound a little cryptic. It's just the way that it is. I've been accused of being Morpheus, or I don't know how many times I've been accused, "Hey, you sound just like Morpheus!" However, I was here before that movie came out, and I've always spoken the way that I do. So, what you're going to have to do is understand that a reader's job is not to think for you. Our job is merely to hold your hand through the storm and get you through the storm or get you to that place of flowers that you want to be to. So, understand that first and foremost. Also, no, you don't need a reading every two weeks, that's absolutely ridiculous. I tell people a lot of times, I say you really don't need another reading in two weeks, that's just ridiculous, you gotta wait for things to unfold and you gotta see how they come into your life. Now, if you want me to sit and take your money all the time, I'd be happy to do that and you could just say you got a reading but the truth is you don't. Also, you don't need a two-hour reading, any reader that wants to do a two-hour reading for you is full of bologna. (laughs) So, understand that there are different types of readings, different types of readers, psychic and telepathic, and we have a job to do. And no matter what anybody tells you, it is a valid job. That job is merely to help you get through the things that you need to get through in your life in order to be a better person or to fulfill those things that you need to fulfill to bring peace to your life. That is the basic job of a reader. Also someone who's a spiritual counselor or a telepathic counselor like myself. So, the first question.. is?

00:15:28

Kazi:

He wanted to hear your perspective on psychic abilities and what they actually are in comparison to the beliefs and expectations that people have.

Ahura:

Well, I don't know what the beliefs and expectations that everyone does have, however I can tell you that a person who has a psychic ability has a psychic ability and most of the times those people that are psychic or those people who are telepathic don't sit around and think about it. There are people who are intuitive and they have a lucky guess here and there and they believe that there's something wrong with them based upon what society has believed or what society has placated. And there are a lot of people that became very very famous on their psychic belief and I can tell you that a couple of them are actually valid but there are some of them that are just going with the flow and someone just decided, "This is what we want a psychic to look like" or "We want every psychic to talk about there's a little girl that is in pain somewhere." Not denying the fact that there are a lot of people that are in pain, we want certain things based upon how popular something is going to be, we come up with clever things to say and it's unfortunate because people with an intuitive ability or psychic ability are just matter-of-fact, we always have been, just kind of like farmers. (laugh) You don't go to a farmer and say, "Hey, I'm skeptical about you growing corn" when the farmer has grown corn all their life. They don't sit over huddled in the corner saying, "Oh my god, I grow so much corn. I just grow so much corn! And it's causing me great pain." No, they just do it because they're good at it. And it's a natural way of them being.

As for myself, I did not go through all of the trauma that people claim is associated with psychism, nor is my head up in the clouds all of the time. When I see something, I see something, if I don't see something, I'm quite honest about it. I don't sit and go, "Huh, let me consult my people." And go into a trance and do things. If I don't see it, I don't see it. And most of the time, what people believe is one thing. There's a difference between what a person believes and what a person knows. I say what I know, I don't say what I believe because it really doesn't do anything. Psychic ability is psychic ability whether or not someone believes in it. Telepathic ability is telepathic ability whether or not someone believes in it or endorses it, I really don't care. You can have people all day saying, "Well, you know science says that this doesn't exist." What do I care what science says? Science lies all the time. We still don't have flying cars and I remember watching The Jetsons and watching all these other things that say that, "Science will by the year 2000 will develop this." They can't even figure out how to get sodium out of food so I don't wanna hear what science has to say. At least not popular science. Pure science is a different thing. Remember, pure science is the discovery of all things that have not been seen before and accepts them all equally whether they come under the heading of psychism, spiritual, or scientific, it's all a discovery and we need to find out what that is, that's pure science. And then find a way to help it to benefit us as human kind. So my perspective on psychic ability is pure and simple, it exists. There are people that have psychic ability. And if they do have psychic ability, they owe it to themselves and the world to develop that psychic ability. Otherwise, it's no good.

So, I hope that answers your questions because that's exactly the way that I feel about it, it's not like I can give you a huge dissertation on it. I can only tell you that, look, as a telepath, I've always been this way. I just have to develop my gifts and I had to help someone that was very powerful help me to do that. So, I hope that does help you. Now what I'm going to do is, I see that we have a couple of people that have called in, I'm going to go to Shari first and we're going to allow here in our studio. Here we go.

00:19:56

Ahura:
Sherry, how are you?

Caller:
Good, how are you?

Ahura:
I'm just wonderful. What is your question this evening, you're on the air live with Ahura Z., that would be me. (laughs)

Caller:
I just had a dream that was very vivid.

Ahura:
Okay, what was your dream?

Caller:
It was like a work-type dinner and we were getting ready to eat and they had ordered a round of salads with lobster on top, the lobster was already cleaned and placed on top of the salad to look like they formed back to its regular shape after they took it out of the shell. But the lobsters were everywhere.

Ahura: There are two different ways to look at this, but I'm going to give you the best way to look at it, okay? You're at a function that is at your place of employment, which basically means that you have work on your mind most of the time. Also, you may have an event that is coming up that you'll need to get ready for. It's not necessarily a lobster dinner but it does mean getting something in shape. In other words, the function that you're going to have or be asked to go to has to do with the company and your placement in the company. So pay attention for that opportunity, it's coming very soon. I'm assuming this particular dream was in color, yes?

Caller:
Oh yeah. Actually, they were bright red.

Ahura:
Okay, bright red. Bright red has to do with passion. It also has to do with creativity. Which basically means that it's coming very very quickly and it'll come very hot and fast because remember, you're also dealing with a south type of vibration, southwind being red. So, it's going to come up soon and when it does you should be ready for it.

Caller:
If I already knew that I was going to a seminar, but had the dream after, it doesn't count right, it would be something different?

Ahura:
When it comes to that, I can only what it is that I see. See, I didn't know that you were invited to a seminar, so to me it's still valid.

Caller:
Okay. So it could be either or.

Ahura:

Yeah, it just talks to you about an event that is coming up that you need to have the appropriate dress for and be appropriate at, okay?

Caller:

Okay. Got it.

Ahura:

It might sound simple. Okay, if you think of anything else, feel free to call in at any moment of time, it was good talking to you and I will see you again. Okay. And that was Sherry, and we're going to go to the next call and that would be Elise, and let's go ahead and welcome Elise into the studio, how you doin Elise?

00:22:43

Caller:

Hi, I'm doing okay, how about you?

Ahura:

Oh, just wonderful.

Caller:

You sound great. I have a question.

Ahura:

Thank you, so do you. Certainly.

Caller:

I have this question, it's kind of weird. I don't like to drive on the highway anymore because whenever I drive on the highway, I see people running into the middle of the highway and waving me down and then they disappear so I realize they're not people. They're spirits, maybe of people who died. And I was wondering, how do I stop that from happening so I can start driving on the highway again?

Ahura:

(laughs) You know, the interesting thing about that is this has happened for a long, long time. You're not gonna be able to stop them from doing that. However, if you increase your energy it'll put you just beyond that because I know exactly what you're talking about. Most of the time, when you do come across those particular entities, and it happens a lot in the highway, specifically the 95. These are people that have gone on before and perhaps they're angry about something, and I'm going to go ahead and say that there are a lot of people who have died, either they've died in untoward circumstances or they're angry about something. Or there are people that don't know that they've died yet that decide to run out into the street kind of like a deer and just kinda either wave you down or try to distract you, that has actually caused a lot of accidents and there are people out there that know exactly what it is that I'm saying, because I've seen them myself and I just look at them and say, "What are you doing? That's ridiculous. I'm not gonna be distracted and I understand because what you have to do, however, is you just have to focus on the road ahead. If you give a little bit of validity to the things that are in the third dimension, the other things won't distract you so much. So remember, if you're going to be driving on the highway, try to stay focused on the physicality of the highway and not lose your thoughts into anything else. That's usually the remedy for it, however you're not going to stop them from doing what it is that they do. It's just what they do. Sometimes we have to cope with certain things, it's kinda like being in a room full of children and hoping that they're all not gonna do what you don't want them to do. That's impossible. But you can not to be affected by it, do you understand?

Caller:

Yeah. I do understand, yeah.

Ahura:

Yeah. But I understand exactly what you're saying, in fact, I've pointed it out to other people, I said, "Do you know there are a lot of people out here that died as slaves or indentured servants or on their property, they died? And they just wanna get back at someone so they're looking at these machines and just, they wait right until you get there and then dart across the road or dart right out in the middle of the street and these are shadows or they just look like people that are kind of hollow and you're like, "Did I really see that?" Of course you really saw it. It's just a matter of whether or not you want to accept the fact that you saw it or not. And that doesn't mean go out there with a butterfly net and try to catch one of them, cause that's actually ridiculous. However, there are a lot of things that happen on the highways. Remember, they weren't always highways there and there've been a lot of people that have gone on here that have come and passed here. So, just try to focus on the third dimension, do you understand?

Caller:

I do. Thank you. Okay.

Ahura:

You're very, very welcome. It's good to hear from you again. If you come up with any other questions, please feel free.

Caller:

Well, I do have another question. I don't know if it's okay to take up the--

Ahura:

Sure, go ahead.

00:26:19

Caller:

Okay. Alright. There's this lady that lives downstairs from us and she's pretty old and she has brown hair. And the other day, she went out and she came back and there was another woman that was standing behind her. And I said to her, "Oh, you're bringing your friend over." And she said, "No, there's nobody with me, what are you talking about?" And she just went in her house and the next day when I saw her again, she looked exactly like the person that was standing behind her and I realize the person that was standing behind her was a spirit, but now she looks just like her. So, why does that happen? And like, is there something I can do to help her with it?

Ahura:

Well, you're assuming that she needs help with it.

Caller:

Oh.

Ahura:

Do you understand? Sometimes you have to just assume that this is the way that people want to be. And that it's okay. Now, did you see the spirit try to hurt her?

Caller:

No, no not necessarily. It's just the spirit didn't look like a benevolent spirit.

Ahura:

Well, I understand but appearances can be rather deceiving. Sometimes you have to wait for whether or not that particular spirit is actually doing something that would warrant you thinking that the person needed help. On the other hand, maybe she asked for it. I understand that you being a spiritualist, you always want to help someone. I understand that but sometimes you have to weigh whether or not your help is needed at that particular point, or even if it's going to be invited. Sometimes, you just have to wait for the person to ask you for help.

Caller:

Oh, I see. Okay. That makes sense.

Ahura:

That way, we're not going around picking fights.

Caller:

Yeah, I understand, okay.

Ahura:

So, look at the situation from an unbiased perspective. And just kind of say, okay, we understand that there are always spirits and this person is saying, "There's no spirit behind me," so she's totally unaware of what's going on. And we really don't want to say, "Hey, there's a spirit hanging behind you." Because at that moment, you'll scare her and she'll either think you're weird or she'll just stay up nights looking for some spirit. So, that's not the way that we do things, we just kind of wait until there's an opportunity to help or that someone asks for help or you see something actually being done wrong. Okay?

Caller:

Oh, I see. That happens a lot though to people.

Ahura:

Yeah, just say a prayer. You know what you do best, pray for them.

Caller:

Yeah, okay sure.

Ahura:

Good I hope that helps you.

Caller:

It does, yeah thanks a lot.

Ahura:

Good, okay. It was good talking to you, Elise. I'll see you soon. Night night.

Caller:

Bye. Goodnight.

Ahura:

Alright, that was Elise, now what we're going to do is we're going to take a show break, a short break. And I'll be back to speak with you all and have some more questions being answered and you're on the air live, Ask The Unicorn. I'm Ahura Z.

Announcer:

You are listening to Ask The Unicorn with Ahura Z. Diliiza. Answering all your paranormal, metaphysical, and spiritual questions. Call us now at (718) 664-9638 to speak with Ahura. Or post your questions via chatroom on our show page. If you have an issue you'd like to discuss with Ahura in more detail, he offers telepathic readings and spiritual counseling by phone and Skype. Ahura also teaches private classes online using Skype video. For more information, visit Unicorn Cove School of Metaphysics. At www.Unicorn-Cove.com. And now back to Ask The Unicorn.

0:30:26

Ahura:

Hello, I have to apologize for our listeners here because we're having a few technical difficulties but I hope that you all can hear me and I hope that you don't hear me during the breaks but if you do, (laughs) sorry about that, I'm still learning. Now, we're going to go back to the floor with some questions. And what do you got for me next?

Kazi:

This next question is from Vasu, and they ask, "Hi Ahura, I come from India but currently, I live in Germany. My grandmother passed away last year. I just had a small question. My aunt's had a dream some months ago in which she heard my grandmother say that it is cold here and that she cannot find my grandfather. It's been about 20 years since my grandfather died. My mom recently had a dream in which she said that she heard her. She was sounding young and cheerful but apparently seems to be concerned about my uncle. Neither of them wants to investigate this and probably if they have these dreams again, would they actually consider doing something about it. I just want to know from your perspective, is this just coincidence? Or do you think there is an underlying reason? Thanks, best regards, Vasu."

Ahura:

Okay, Vasu, I can tell you this, that there's no such thing as coincidence. When things appear to be a coincidence, it's because it's time for things to happen. And it's kind of a, I like to call them a coordinated incidence is what I like to call them. That means that that particular time, it doesn't necessarily have to be investigated, but it needs to be aired so that some things happen. You're going to have to leave that choice up to those that want to investigate, or don't want to investigate. That's the best move for you. If you choose to investigate something, then by all means, go ahead. And if you need help in your investigation, I'd be more than happy to help you or there are a lot of other people that would be more than happy to help you out. However, no there is no such thing as a coincidence, I say full speed ahead on your intuition. Let's go to another question. I hope that does help you. What's your next question?

00:32:35

Kazi:

Next one comes from Zanda and she says, "How do you feel that the job of readers has changed in recent history?"

Ahura:

The job of a reader has never changed, it's the people that change. The job of a reader has always been the job of a reader, it's just what people do with it as I was saying earlier, the job of a reader is merely to point the way to help a person reach where they need to have reached, it's not to think for a person. There are those that do the job well and there are those who do not. However, I will say this about when you go to see a reader. The best thing that you can do to help your reader out is to cooperate. Don't ask trick questions, don't not volunteer information that needs to be volunteered. We're not there to play parlor tricks or, "Can you guess what I'm thinking?" That's kind of dumb. (laughs) If you wanna go to a reader, then at least be an intelligent client. And when the reader says, "Hey, I'm seeing this particular thing." You have to think on your end as well and say, "Hey, that's right I did say this or I did have this." I've spoken to people lots of times, I say, okay. Here's an example, I told a person, "You know if someone left a little wooden duck bank for you that has something on the inside of it and I think it's just a note but it's definitely a wooden duck, kind of like a decoy." And the person says, "Well, I don't know anything like that." And I said, "I'm sorry. I keep getting shown this over and over again so I'm sure this is an actual wooden duck. I'm sure." And the person says, "I don't know." And then finally, just in the course of talking, the person says, "You know, there was that one little thing that my dad left for me and it was a statuette." And I said, "What is the statuette of?" They said, "It was a duck." I say, "Okay. What was the statuette made of?" And they said, "Well, it was a wooden carving." And I say, (laughs) "Yeah, it was a wooden duck. That particular thing you need to look into because it was actually a bank." So, if you're going to go see a reader, at least help the reader out. Don't go there with some preconceived notion of what a reader actually is. That way, you get the best reading possible. Our job has always been the same. To merely point the way for you, to show you what we see from the top of the building when you can't see it. So help them out, that's the job of a reader. Anyway, I do hope that that helps you. I'm going to go back to the phone lines just for a moment and I'm going to talk to Amy York, who just stepped in. How are you doing, Amy?

Caller: I'm good, how are you? Having a good time.

Ahura:

Good, wonderful. You're on the air live with Ahura Z., what can I do for you?

Caller:

I was wondering, would changing my name help me let go of the past? Changing my first name?

Ahura:

Hmm. Changing your name doesn't help you let go of anything. Changing your name merely changes your vibrations. That's like saying, "Would changing my name caused the world to spin backwards?" No, you're going to have to deal with what it is that you have to deal with. You're going to have to find out what is in your past that is troubling you and deal with that directly. However, changing your name will possibly change your vibration enough that you'll be better equipped to deal with it. The past is always the past and there are certain events that you just can't take back. But what you can do is perhaps gain a little strength so that you can face those things and then move on. Understand something, if you have a problem with changing something that needs to be changed in one location, you can change your location, you can change your name, you can change every single thing. But if you haven't conquered that particular demon as a threshold, it's just gonna follow you. It'll just take a different shape. So I say deal with the past that needs to be dealt with, and then change your name. Or change your name anyway and just deal with that past that needs to be dealt with. Hopefully that'll help you.

Caller:

Okay. If I were to change my name, how would I go about choosing something stronger or more grown-up or something?

Ahura:

Well, you'd have to determine what is stronger. Maybe look at some of the names and find out the definitions of these names and find out if the definition does resonate with you. There are lots of names out there, but understand, it's not just changing your name, it's just changing your vibration. And then decide if that particular vibration does fit with you, for instance if you go and you choose the name Thor (laughs), I think before you did something like that, because you might get those things that come with choosing a name such as Thor. So you really have to think about what you're doing. Amy's a great name. But if you feel that you need to change it, then, find out exactly what you want to change that to. Even make up a name and find out what the vibration of that is. Perhaps understand what numerology does and how it applies to what it is that you've chosen. Find out if there's any totemic symbology that would go with your name. Understand all the same that if you're going to change your name, it changes your vibration. It doesn't, however, change your past.

Caller:

Okay.

Ahura:

So do some research, find out what's out there.

Caller:

Okay.

Ahura:

Okay. I hope that helps you! It was good talking to you. Have a good evening.

Caller:

You too, bye.

Ahura:

Alright, that was an interesting question. I like these particular types of questions, if you have any questions whether it be personal or public, go ahead and feel free to ask it and I'll do my best to answer your questions. I have all of these answers because basically I'm a telepath and that being a telepath that has been well-versed in many many different areas, I have some answers to give. Whether you agree or not with my answer, that's up to you. However, I will do my best to serve you in the most positive way that I can. Even if you have something that is troubling you, it's okay to ask your question. For those of you that want to call in, the number again is (718)664-9638. I love it when people call in because I get to talk to them one on one. If you just would like to have your question wrote in, you can do that and we will answer any questions that come our way. Alright, speaking of questions, what have you got for me?

00:39:42

Kazi:

Next question is from Chris and he said, "Are there some energies that cannot be removed?"

Ahura:

Hmm. Interesting question, eventually all energy can be dissipated no matter what it is. Whether or not you're equipped to remove a certain energy is really what you want to ask. Are you capable of removing a said energy? Sometimes you could be and sometimes you can't. But there's always someone who has that particular capability. So this is why it's important to ask questions, it's also why it's important to be well-versed in what it is that you're studying when it comes to the spiritual. It also helps you when you have other people to bounce your ideas off of and when you have other people that you know. In other words, the best thing that you can do is establish a very strong spiritual network or a mystical network or a paranormal network that we have a wealth of knowledge to draw upon. But to answer your particular question, there are some energies that are more difficult to remove than others. I think that all of us like to believe that we are capable of doing anything and everything but sometimes we may not be the tool for the job or we may not be capable of removing a certain energy but someone else may be and that's why you look for help. And there's nothing wrong with looking for help. Okay. I hope that does help you, Chris. And what do you got for me next?

00:41:17

Kazi:

"I've been seeing a lot of clouds that have an uncanny resemblance to how angels are typically portrayed. Is there any significance to this?"

Ahura:

Only to you. Only to you. If you have that particular thought, it's a pretty safe bet to say that there's something in that particular shape or something in the clouds that helps you. Not everybody will see what you see. I think that's a common thing that comes up is, because you see something or you saw something doesn't necessarily mean that someone else saw it but it's okay that you saw it, do you understand? It's okay. You don't need validation from anyone else to see what you see. If you looked at the clouds and saw an angel, then you looked at the clouds and saw an angel. And that may bare some significance to you. It may not bare some significance to someone else. So, you can't really get mad at a person or be frustrated with a person because they don't see what you see, the best thing that you can do is to hold onto that particular vision that you saw, even with your physical eyes, and decide whether or not it bares some significance in your life. And if it does bare some significance in your life, exploit it to the highest. So it's more of a question to ask yourself, "I saw an angel in this cloud formation what does that mean to me? Is there an angel that is looking out for me? Are angels real?" I can tell you that they are. And for those of you that believe that they don't come in human form, you are seriously deluding yourself again because they do come in human form. They can come in any form that they choose to that's kinda why they're angels. (laughs) Okay. So yeah, it bares some significance.

I hope that does help you out. I'm gonna go back to the phone lines again, it's great that there are people calling in. This particular caller is Mande. And we're gonna welcome Mande in.

00:43:25

Ahura:

And how are you this evening, Mande? How are you? You're on the air with Ahura Z.

Caller:

First and foremost, I must thank the strength of your prayers that has offered me my freedom in my moment of despair. You were the person I called and everything that you said has come to fruition so, thank you Uncle Z.

Ahura:

You're very very welcome and you have to realize you played a part in that so thank yourself. And your mother.

Caller:

And my mother, thank you very much. So answer my question. It's something that has been playing in my thoughts for some years. And I would like to know, how to lower my spiritual frequency so that I may be less visible to my enemies and less threatening to those who would perceive me as a spiritual, physical or intellectual threat?

Ahura:

Hmm. That comes with altering your physical energy. Understand that the first level of spirituality is reality. You're going to have to take an inventory of what it is that you've done or what it is that you're doing or who it is that you are. What you don't want to do is lower your spiritual energy, you really don't wanna do that. What you wanna do is merely transform your spiritual energy, so that you are more or less invisible to negative things and very visible to those positive things so you're going to have to learn some discipline, young man. Like all young men do. You're going to have to learn some form of a discipline and it's not like there's not a banquet of discipline out there for you to follow. But you're going to have to stick with something. Choose something. In your case, I might recommend some form of martial art. I might recommend that because if you're working your physical body, you're making sure that there's a healthy balance between your mind and your body that will do what you are looking for. It's not so much lowering of anything that you need. It is channeling your spiritual energy. The best thing for you to do is heighten your spiritual energy. However, there are people that are going to be threatened by your appearance whether or not you choose for them to be. And the last thing that I would have you do is hold your head down trying to hide when you are the proud person that I know for you to be. So my suggestion is this. Think about all of those that have reached out to help you. All of those that have every done anything good for you. All of those that have risked themselves in order to help you be a free person or help you be a good person or help you to just be a strong person that will represent your family or your state of being in a positive light that will help other citizens and other people in this world. Think about those things.

There are a lot of people that went in to help you, Mande. So when you start thinking about them, think about how you would love to be able to pay them back or to represent them and do that to the best of your ability. You'll have to change your thoughts on humility and being humble. Understand that being humble is not a lowering of anything and understand that being confident means that you are being humble because confidence is the child of humility. So understand that if you are following the disciplines that were given to you and representing your family and your life in a positive way, you are indeed being humble, so do that confidently. And you'll be doing the right thing, you'll get the results that you want. So, the next time you decide to do something that is not positive, think about it just for a second. Remember all of the people that held their hands out so that you can grab into it and they pulled you out of hell. Think about those moments before you do something you know you should not. If you do that, you won't land in the pit. The pit won't even exist for you anymore. It'll take some time. Remember, all of us young men, (when I was younger) (laughs), young men need discipline. there's no getting around it, we need discipline. Basically up until the time that we have learned to leave the halls of stupid, we are exactly that, stupid. And there is no young man, no man on the face of this Earth, as a matter of fact, that did not visit the halls of stupid. I don't care who they were or who they think they were. We all have lessons to learn and we must all receive discipline. So be the disciplined being that you need to be. Make your momma proud.

Caller:

Amen.

Ahura:

Okay? I hope that helps you, good hearing from you. Tell your mother I said hello.

Caller:

I will. Thank you, Uncle Z.

Ahura:

You're very welcome, Mande.

Caller:

Congratulations.

Ahura:

Thank you, take care. Alright that was Mande, good to hear from him. I like it when people come in and tell me about results or tell me the things that they've done. It helps them out and it helps me out and it helps what it is that we're doing because anybody that decides to do something positive has a challenge and that means carrying on. And I'm going to carry on with another question (laughs).

00:49:03

Kazi:

Alright this next question comes from Arlesha Valentine in our chatroom and she says, "Hello, do you teach telepathy? Also, can you tell me who the dark haired man with blue or grey eyes is who shows up in my dream?"

Ahura:

Okay, yes I do teach telepathic development. And I will give you some information, I will help you understand how and when and why and all that good stuff. And the particular person that you're talking about is a relative of yours that you may have lost touch with or may have just briefly seen. However, this particular person has taken it upon themselves to make sure that you are guarded and protected. Especially since some events that happened last winter, so that's the person that you are looking at. And you might call that person a guardian angel of sorts, don't go into all of the sci-fi methodology of that, but this is a person that is basically a guardian and will give you some information but you're going to have to wait for the information. That's who that is. Plain and simple. If you would like more information on that, you can always contact us, you can call our number, which we've told you before, which is (207) 347-5686 and schedule a counseling or a reading with myself and we'll fix you up that way. I hope that answers your question and I hope it helps you.

Okay, I'm going to take one more little short break and the reason I'm going to do that is because I'd like to play a song and this particular song is called "Battle Song" and this is for those of you that have had some challenges in your life and understanding that there is an army of angels that is waiting to help you at any moment in time. I will be back shortly and you're on the air with Ahura Z., and this is Ask The Unicorn.

00:51:06 - 00:54:37

("Battle Song" by Pisces Projekt from the album OPERA)

Ahura:

Okay, that was "Battle Song" and that was Pisces Projekt. For those of you that would like to download some of this music, you can go to our music site and that is Unicorn 1 Records, that is at www.Unicorn1Records.com and the name of that song was "Battle Song".

Okay I would like to go back and kind of re-answer a question that was asked about telepathy. I myself am a telepath, now what a telepath is is a little different from a psychic. The difference is not huge. It's not like we're different creatures or anything it's just one is a little different, which basically says that my information can come from anything. In other words, I don't have to depend or focus in on a particular type of energy to get a reading from it. I'm kind of like an open channel, in other words, I receive information about a problem or about a benefit to a person's life. It's not about reading the person's mind, that's something entirely different. It's not about guessing what someone has in their pocket. It's about using your mind at a different frequency. In other words, I can touch something and get a reading from it, or I can see something and get a reading from it, I can smell something and get a reading from it, I can feel something. I don't have to guess at things. In other words, there are certain things that I am very confident in knowing and there are certain things that I am not. I'm a very clear channel or as my teacher use to call me, she called me "Ground Control" because basically the information just comes ship to shore with me. In other words, what I'll see is what you'll get. And there's no real filter in between them. I have learned to filter things over time.

Now, if a person asks me if I teach telepathy, yes. Yes I do or I teach telepathic development. I teach classes all the time and that can be done either in person or that can be done over the internet or over the phone, even. It depends on what a person is actually comfortable with. When a person is learning how to develop themselves as a telepath, we have to establish whether or not that person has a telepathic ability. Now, it would be incorrect to say that everyone possesses that particular ability, however, it is correct to say that everyone is psychic to a degree or another. In other words, this is a psychic planet and we can prove that very very easily and I've done it many, many times, having a room full of maybe 200-300 people, having them all close their eyes and picture an apple. And then have them smell the apple and taste the apple. Now 300 out of 300 people have done that, even those people that call themselves a "skeptic", understanding that we do share kind of a neural web and that neural web is hooked into this particular Earth, which is hooked into the solar system, which is hooked into the galaxy, which is hooked into the universe. Basically what that means is to a degree, when great teachers told us that we all are one, they were telling the absolute truth. Etherically, we all are one. You know, so, whether or not we believe that we're all so different from one another, that's kind of a delusion or an illusion. The truth is, we all are pretty basically the same. It just depends, some people have a little more, some people have a little less, some people have blue, some people have red, it just depends on what we are but we are basically the same. In other words, when you think of a person that is to a degree, depending on how much intuition that they have, can sense that someone is thinking about them. They may not think that you're thinking about them but they know that someone is thinking about them and there is some effect to that.

Now, what I do with a person is teach them to develop that particular sense or develop that knowing or develop that particular vision. And there are certain exercises and things that happen over time to help them. It all comes with not only exercise but it comes with counseling, it comes with physical discipline, it comes with mental discipline, it comes with sensory discipline, it comes with knowing the difference between an emotion and a feeling and all of these things and that takes time to do, even if you're born with a natural ability, you still have to train it, as I did. Otherwise you can become a first-class telepathic jerk, which is what I was. So, once I received training, I understood the importance of what it is that I've been given. And I don't really agree or disagree with what anybody else thinks telepathy is, however, I do know what it's not. And I've had occasion where someone was pretending to be telepathic and they weren't. And I just really didn't say anything about it, it's not really my place to do so until I was challenged, and I did. And I do. A lot of the shows that are on that have children, that are exploiting children and calling them psychic kids. Many of these children are not really as psychic as they have been led on to be. There are some that are but there are many that are not and rocking back and forth and saying how much in pain they are is not a symptom of being psychic, that is a symptom of being delusional. However, we all have our ways.

Now, if you'd like to receive some form of training and developing yourself, I can do that but understand, I do not teach for free. And anybody who believes that I should offer my time and services for free again, is deluding themselves. I worked very hard for my training and I know what I'm doing and I'm very qualified to teach and if you'd like training from me, understand it won't be for free. However, if you'd like to receive some form of training in telepathy or psychic development, you can reach me at Unicorn Cove School of Metaphysics, that's www.Unicorn-Cove.com. I can also be reached at several other places such as Ask The Unicorn, this particular show and for those of you that need the web address, that is www.AskTheUnicorn.com. You can also see archived episodes of my show. You can also reach me for those of you that are into the paranormal, and learning how to do a paranormal investigation or understand what paranormal investigation is, I can be reached at Unicorn Rangers, that is my Unicorn Rangers Psychic Police Department and that is www.UnicornRangers.org. You can also find me on facebook and that is www.Facebook.com/AhuraZ.

Now, understand, if you really want to know what telepathy is, that's pretty long discussion. There's no quick answer to what telepathy is. Telepathy is an experience, it's not an explanation. However, if you develop your psychism to a degree that you develop into a telepathic ability, that would be a plus for you. I believe that we all, in fact, it is my whole-hearted belief that psychism and telepathy should be taught in regular curriculum at schools, I don't understand why it's not, there's so many telepathic people that are in schools and in colleges, I think it's the most astounding mis-sight to have psychology be taught without telepathy. It doesn't make any sense. It doesn't make any sense also that people with gifts are not pushed into developing those gifts. If you think about it just for a second, this should be normal curriculum, it should be part of regular scholastic teachings. It should be part. I'd be happy to help any school at any point in time, I'll be happy to help any law enforcement at any point in time, whether that be local, state, or federal. But as far as the schooling goes, if you have telepathic children and you know that you have telepathic children, you owe it to them to help them develop that particular gift, it might help you even in the long-run, that is spoken to the parents. Listen, you can pretend all day that these things don't exist, you can pretend all day that you don't believe in these things and it really doesn't matter. What matters is that there are children and there are people out there that have these abilities that have been mis-sighted or they've been looked over or they've been told that they were crazy or they've been medicated to the degree that they can't even hold common thought rather than to be developed and it's about time that we started looking in this particular direction.

As far as people out there that don't believe in telepathy, and they think that people like me are crazy, that's fine. That's just fine. However, if I was rich, you'd call me eccentric. (laughs) So as far as I'm concerned, I don't care whether you believe in it or not and I know that there are whole societies out there that are like, "Well, we're going to prove that telepathism doesn't exist!" (laughs) It's such a waste of time. I don't care whether you believe in it or not. As a matter or not, if you don't believe in it, fine. If you do believe in it, fine. Your belief doesn't mean one hill of beans to me, it matters what you do with your belief or what you do with your knowledge, so yes I teach telepathic development, I teach psychic development, I even teach manual development. It depends on what it is that you say that you want to do. If there's something in your life that you say that you want to do that will benefit mankind and womankind, there's a pretty safe bet that I can help you develop it. So, I have given you the address, I have given you the invitation to take classes, I have given you the impetus to take classes, for those of you out there that are hiding, that are trying to be shrinking violence with your mentality or your belief, or your ability, it's time to step out. People step out of the closet all the time, so I'm gonna tell you, step out of the paranormal closet, okay? Come out and let people know, "Listen I think I have this particular ability and I'd like to develop it." If they don't want to hang around with you anymore, then you don't need those people. So, I'm just saying that for all you people out there that are hiding. The supernatural does exist. Supernatural merely means natural and beyond, remember that. Now for those of you that believe you can jump out of a building and fly, that's a little different, I suggest you step away from the ledge (laughs) and understand that there are some physical limitations. We live in a 3rd dimensional world which basically means that we have to obey some form of 3rd dimensional rules. For those of you that can fly and you've actually shown yourself that you can fly, hey, more power to you. But I haven't seen anyone yet that can fly. And myself included. I can fly in my mind. Now, I'd like to get back to some of the questions here. So what have you got for me, Kazi?

01:06:26

Kazi:

Next question is from Tina Brown, she wants to know, "When Michael was here, and every time he recorded baby Jordan, there would be an orb or light that would dart across the screen and she wants to know what they are and why they are there."

Ahura:

What they are and why they are there. I think I kind of answered a question earlier that was similar to this, understand that there are certain guides and even nurse spirits that help us along the way. And if they were there for Jordan, then they were there for Jordan. I think that these particular things that you saw may have been just energy or a spirit, an actual spirit. And that they were just checking in on him from time to time, but that happens with all of us. As I said, whether we believe it or not, there are a lot of people that are looking at us all the time and sometimes they step in to help us and when your son was here, that was the case, and now it may be even your son that is stepping in from time to time to watch over and protect her, to guard. So there are spirits that exist and they are watching us all the time. You don't have to hunt for them, they will find you. I hope that helps you. Alright, what have we got next?

01:08:04

Kazi:

Next question is from Jason Steelman in our chatroom, he asks, "I have a feeling something big is going to happen in 2014, any clue on what might that be and if this is just a general feeling or feeling about me and my surroundings."

Ahura:

I think that you're referring to your wanting to change your location, there may be something that will afford you that opportunity, also there are some events that I see coming. One of them has to do with visitors to this particular planet that I see coming. And the opportunity for that to happen is not far away. But there are some definite Earth changes that are happening and things that are caused, things that are not caused. For instance, we just had that major typhoon, and I'm looking for some more events like that. Now, for those of you that may be frightened by certain things of that nature, I apologize, it is not my intention to frighten you, I'm merely telling you to be ready for some events. Some major events. For those of you that believe in aliens, understand that that doesn't really take a belief, they've been around for quite some time. And I believe that there's going to be more announcements to that alluding to the fact that they've been around for quite some time. And I believe that there's gonna be more announcements to alluding to the fact that they've been around for quite some time. There are many events that will happen in 2014, my suggestion is that you keep your eyes open. Some of them will be very, very positive and some of them will be quite negative. However, if you keep on the course that you are all going, for those of you that are trying to stay positive, I believe that you will be fine. Just keep your eyes open and don't get paranoid about things. Just stay steady and stay strong. But you're right, you'll get the opportunity to relocate, so look forward, it's coming. The cloud that is stopping you is going away slowly. (laughs) Okay, good to hear from you Jason, I hope that helps you. Alright, what have we got next? Okay, it looks like we have a caller here, so I'm going to open the floor to the caller momentarily, they're not really in our studio but I will open that shortly. In the meantime, I wanna tell you all that if you do have questions, please feel free to ask them. If there's some instruction that you need, if you're studying spellwork or you're studying anything like that, and you get the opportunity to ask a question or you get stuck, I'll help you as best as I can. Now would be a very, very good time to reflect on the things that have happened all throughout your year and decide to start mapping out your New Year.

Okay this person is in the studio right now so I'm going to welcome Chris, how you doin' Chris? Hello?

01:11:09

Caller:

Good.

Ahura:

How are you?

Caller:

Doing good.

Ahura:

Okay, what can I do for you?

Caller:

I was just wondering, is there such thing as telekinesis?

Ahura:

Yes. There is. I think we've had this discussion before, there is such a thing as telekinesis. Many refer to it as psychokinesis. And what that is is the ability to move an object with one's mental energy. Whether that be a physical object or whether that be something that is not quite so physical. It just depends on the development of the person's magnetism or the development of the person's psionic power, that means mental power. Now if you're looking for someone that is able to pick up a car and throw it across the street with their mind, I haven't seen that yet. (laughs) But I've seen some demonstrations of a person being able to move objects just by concentrating thought on them. So yeah, there is such a thing.

Caller:

I have another question. Do you have to be born with a natural ability or could you just train yourself through hard training?

Ahura:

That depends on what that ability is. You can be born with it or train yourself. It's the same as any other ability, Chris. If you have the propensity to have a certain ability, then you can develop it. However, if you go to bake a cake and there's no sugar, you really can't bake the cake with sugar, can you?

Caller:

No.

Ahura:

So if you don't have a particular ability or you don't even have the propensity for that ability, there's really no way for you to develop it. However, if you have the predilection or the propensity for an ability and you really wanna learn it and you show some earnest nature in learning it, it is possible. It is indeed possible. So, if there's something that you want to learn and you weren't born with a natural desire or a natural ability to do it, that doesn't bar you, you can't learn. Does that help you?

Chris:

Alright. Yes it does.

Ahura:

Good hearing from you.

Caller:

Alright.

Ahura:

Alright, you take care.

Caller:

I will, see you tomorrow.

Ahura:

Okay, that was Chris and he's a very bright young man. Asks some very good questions, very deep questions. For those of you that would also like to call in and ask questions, you may do so at (718) 664-9638. Now normally, I just have this show for an hour but I've decided that I'm going to go longer and I hope that you all can agree with that. For those of you that would like to make sure that I can do longer shows and do more shows, you can make a donation to what it is that we're doing, all you really have to do is go to the Ask The Unicorn site and that's at www.AskTheUnicorn.com and you can make a donation there. We would very much appreciate it. As I said before, this is not my hobby, this is what I do for a living. I teach for a living, I educate people for a living, I help them for a living. I do paranormal investigations, I do entity and spirit removal. I do cleansing and spell-breaking and anything that has to do with the metaphysical and spiritual, however, I'm not a fluffy spiritualist, if you're looking for me to just give you a bunch of platitudes and talk about how the angels are bound on the head of a pin, I am not that kind of mystic. The person I am is a practical mystic. In other words, I practice practical mysticism, if it can help your life, I will do so. For those of you that again, that need help, we are here and we're here weekly. If you'd like to see more shows, then you can help us out. Just go to the sites and make a donation. We'd be very happy to receive your donation and we'd also make sure that you know that we appreciate your donation. Now, let's get back to some questions. What do you got for me?

01:15:14

Kazi:

This next question is from our chatroom, from Jeremy James. He asks, "Are telepaths able to confirm the existence or non-existence of the creature known as Sasquatch?"

Ahura:

Yes! Because they're telepathic, too. Yes, definitely. They do exist. And for those of you that believe they don't exist, let me tell you about an experience that I had. (laughs) And I'll try not to make this not really long but this is one of those things that totally astounded me that have to do with being a telepath. I was in Seattle at the time, and actually it was Redmond, Washington and I was sitting out in my truck at my home and it was in the evening and there were people that were inside. I just wanted a quiet moment so I sat outside in the truck which I always want to do a lot of times and the shadow flashed past the rear of my truck, because the front yard was lit up and I just caught it and my spidey senses went up, you might say. And I just caught it going into the bushes but it didn't really interrupt the bushes. And whatever it was, it just totally caused a hair on the back of my neck or my head to just spike. And I just said, "What was that? That was really big, whatever it was, it was huge and it was fast." So I finally relaxed but I had the distinct impression that something was watching me. And when I have the distinct impression that something is watching me, it's not like what other people get, I just don't count it up to something watching me, I actually begin to see it. And this thing was huge, it had arms and legs like tree trunks. It wasn't lumbering, it wasn't fat, it wasn't all grotesquely hairy or anything but whatever it was, I had never run into anything like that, never, and it was actually reading me. Because I was reading it, it was reading me at the same time and wondering why I could see it. So we all do this, we say, "I can't possibly be seeing what it is that I'm seeing, maybe it's just my imagination and I've heard some stories." So I tried to relax but I really couldn't. And I turn towards the front of my truck again and then it darted past again and I turned full force and I said, "Okay, whatever that was, it was three times as big as I am." And my first thought was that it was a Sasquatch. That was my absolute first thought, but I said, "Wait a second, that doesn't look like any of the pictures I've seen, this thing is not lumbering." It went through a set of cedar bushes or cedar trees and it didn't even interrupt the fronds, it didn't interrupt anything. It was as if it melted right into them and I just caught it moving into it. It was so fast, if I had not been the telepath that I am, I would not have seen it. It moved into these bushes and I got the distinct impression that it was telling someone else, "He can see us." And I'm standing out there, I said, "Okay, perhaps I should kind of go back inside." The problem was, it was between me and my porch so I just kinda said, "Well, this thing is really fast, am I going to make it?"

Now, let me tell you what I was seeing. I saw something that had to be about eight to nine feet tall. It was huge. When I say huge, I'm not kidding. My arms at the time, because I was doing body building, were twenty inches. I was a big guy. It made my arms look like toothpicks. It made my legs look like toothpicks. It made me look like a child. It was not fat. It was not lumbering. It wasn't dark and hairy. It was hairy, whatever it was but it was perfectly proportioned. Finally, I made kind of a creepy dash to my porch. And when I say creepy, it means like when your body really doesn't wanna move but you make it move. So I got back there and all I could sense was whatever it was was actually reading me, scanning me, wondering why I could see it and it was seeing, "Why can it see us?" I was an "it" by the way. So I called up a friend of mine that was in ski patrol and I said, "Kurt, do you know what I just saw?" And I described what it was and he said, "Oh, you saw a Sasquatch." and I said, "What do you mean I saw a Sasquatch?" He said, "Yeah, they're out here." And I said, "You could have told me that!" (laughs) This thing was huge! Another thing was is it does not move normally. Whatever it was, it could camouflage itself perfectly. In other words, when it melted into the trees, the leaves, if you will, barely moved. It was as if soft wind just blew them a little bit. Okay, so, I wait until the next day, hardly sweeping that night. I go outside, I'm looking for footprints cause you always see on television they show footprints. Whatever those guys saw, I don't know what it was that they saw that they got a footprint for them, I couldn't find anything. This thing moved so fast that it barely left a footprint at all, there was nothing out there, there wasn't even an interruption in the grass. There was absolutely nothing that I could prove or disprove, there was nothing there! Nothing! And this thing was huge, you would have thought that it would have left huge canyon footprints in the soil, cause it was wet. There was nothing there.

So, I started thinking and saying, "Well, it makes sense if there are beings that have been here so far ahead of humans that they would develop certain abilities and this is what I call a Sasquatch. And I can only tell you this, they are also telepathic because this thing was reading me at the same time as I was scanning it. And quite frankly, it's telepathic abilities far surpassed mine. I mean, they would have to. Think about it just for a second, why would a Sasquatch just show itself to people, and then subject itself to being tortured because that's what would happen. So, there are probably lots of beings out there, lots of different creatures that are out there that just refuse to show themselves. I'll tell you my UFO experience sometime or what you call a UFO experience. But, that was my experience and that was 100% true and it was 100% valid. So whatever they show the Sasquatch looking like, like there's that one thing that's very famous that shows this kind of fat lumbering being, I didn't see that at all. And what I saw didn't look anything like it. And I happen to know that there's more than just one, there's a bunch of them. So yes, we can see them. I hope that helps you.

01:23:10

Kazi:

Continuing on, Jeremy James wanted to ask, "Is there any indication that they are not entirely of this Earth?"

Ahura:

No, there's no indication that they're not entirely of this Earth, if anything, they are originally from this Earth. We like to believe that, we like to call things aliens but there are things that have been here long before us, long, long, long before us that have just moved beyond our realm of thinking. So I didn't get that impression at all. I got the impression that they have been there a lot longer than we have. So if they are from another place, they were from another place long before we got here. This Earth is a lot older than what we think it is. And I really don't care what science has to say about that, or any other group that has to say about that, this Earth has been here a long time. And for those of you that think that you can count the time the Earth has been here, that's impossible, you weren't here then. (laughs) So, no, there's no indication of that at all. There are indications that other beings were not here that are here now but as far as they go, Sasquatch and other beings like them, they've been here a long time.

Okay, I hope that does help you. I like questions like that because they enable me to talk about that particular thing. What have you got for me next?

01:24:44

Kazi:

Next question is from Mande again and he asks, "I have a grandfather who was in World War 1 and 2, and he chose to follow me as opposed to other males in the family. He communicates with me through punishment and protection. However, I've been ignoring him and how do I harmonize with him?"

Ahura:

You have to determine whether or not you want to harmonize with him because you said punishment, that's a problem. I have a problem with punishment. There mere thought that a spirit can punish you and that's a good thing, is not right. Now if this particular entity is protecting you, okay, we can say that but I have a problem with the whole punishment thing. In fact, I have a problem with punishment period. Someone gave someone else the right to punish someone and if you're accepting punishment from someone then you've got a problem so we have to determine whether or not this is a spirit that you want to have in your life. Now if you mean discipline, that's something entirely different, but understand, punishment is not a good thing. At this particular point, I think that you should get your physical world together before you start delving into the spiritual. Understand that because of your culture, you have a foot ahead on the spiritual realm but you've gotta get your physicality together before you start lifting your head up into those realms. So when you get to the point that your physical things are taken care of and you're able to cope with things on a physical level, then I will be more than happy to talk to you about a spiritual level or dealing with spirits. Up until that point in time, I will use my psychic police methods to make sure that you're not being punished by a spirit. I hope that helps you.

That brings up a very interesting point. Listen, if someone is being hurt or punished by a spirit, it's very important that that get remedied right away. There are people that are capable all over this world of helping you out and understand that just because the person can't reach you or just because you can't get in touch with one person doesn't mean that you can't exercise the option to find another person to help you out. As far as I'm concerned, there's enough meat in the kitchen for everyone, so I will not be insulted if you choose not to go to me, okay? (laughs) So understand that it's unacceptable to be punished by anyone, it is definitely unacceptable to be punished by a spirit. To be protected by a spirit, we have to deem whether or not it is that particular spirit or whether or not it is some other spirit and this particular spirit is posing as that spirit but know this, your best protection comes from your own spirit and understanding your spiritual relationship with the universe so you can remain protected. So deal with yourself first, deal with those things that need to be taken care of first. And if you're dealing with those things that need to be taken care of first and dealing with you first, you may not even need protection from another spirit. Just your own spirit and the holy spirit and the divine spirit that creates all things. So I hope that helps you. Alright, what do we got next?

01:28:20

Kazi:

"How does one go about acquiring a spiritual name?"

Ahura:

This is a common question. I have to again say this, listen, the first level of spirituality is reality, for those of you that really want to know. So deal with something that describes yourself and if you're describing yourself and your nature, then you're dealing with a spiritual name. Do you understand? I think it's kind of a travesty that parents are allowed to name their children, because parents, you should be ashamed of yourself, you guys come up with some doozies. Seriously. You wanna name your child after your grandfather or your grandmother or whatever? Listen, that doesn't help the child. That doesn't help the child at all. Give them their own vibration. Now, at the same time, understand that they are children and probably should not be allowed to name themselves at two years old or else they'll come up with names like "Peek-a-boo" or "Bubble Gum" so if you're talking about a spiritual name, then give them a real name. Or at least when they become of age, let them name themselves. You just think about, what is it that you represent? What is it that you want to be? What is it that you want to be seen as? What is it that resonates with you and then choose a name. If that name resonates with you, fine. By all means. Then choose whether or not you want to go by that name legally or non-legally. If you just want it to be your tag, fine. If you want it to go through all of your life, then follow the steps to make sure that happens. But remember, a name is a vibration. This is what people will know you as. And this is what they will call you. And that particular vibration will steep itself into you. And you will become what that particular vibration represents eventually. So I hope that helps you. And what have we got next?

01:30:27

Kazi:

"You talked about vibrational frequency in your radio spot last weekend, and I am intrigued. You said that you flood the person with their perfect vibration to cure illness. What exactly that does entail?"

Ahura:

That entails me finding out everything I possibly can about you and then we transfer that information into numbers and then we transfer those numbers into notes and tones. And then what we do is we have you give a message to yourself. Sometimes up to five times. And what it does is it becomes a key to your own sub-subconscious. And once you have that key to your own sub-subconscious you can open it and it becomes part of who you are, it becomes exactly what you are. It's like creating you up to five times, sometimes maybe eight times. And what we'll do is we will flood all of you with that vibration. In other words, it's kind of like going against a negative grain. And sound can be used to do that but it has to be very specific, you don't just do a general sound for a person. That general sound may relax a person or it may even get them into a mode but eventually, your consciousness is going to kick it out because it's not yours. What we'd have to do is find your tones. And we will use that to outnumber the bad vibration. Now, also depends on what equipment you have, I can only do it to a certain extent but I've gotten some pretty good results. And everyone that I've done a vibrational frequency from has improved. So, it entails a lot of work. We have to find the proper tones, we have to find maybe the proper instruments. We have to find how many beats per second, or how many vibrations per second. We have to find how many beats per minute. We have to use your birthday to find out what resonates with your birth time and your birth place. We have to find out what resonates with your name, we have to find out whether or not that particular name is actually going to resonate with you and then we have to produce it and we have to produce it in a way that it reaches your head and it reaches your body and not just your ears. It's a long explanation. However, it is very effective and I know that to a degree there are people out there that do similar work to what I do. I've been doing it now for about 25 years and I've introduced a lot of people to it. And I've had certain scientists that were part of the atomic energy commission that wanted to know how I did it and I can only tell you this, it is very effective and it can open you to a whole wide world of discovery about yours. So in the event that you would like a vibrational frequency done, you can contact me and contact the school and that's at Unicorn Cove School of Metaphysics, that's www.Unicorn-Cove.com and I will be more than happy to even teach about vibrational frequency. And that way you can do it for yourself.

Now, I'm going to take one more short break and we're going to play another song. This particular song is called "Gaia Chant" for those of you that would just like some primal strength and some good power to your night and to your day and if you would, you might even try to learn it. It's very very powerful and it gets you results and helps you to gain strength. And here it is, "Gaia Chant."

01:34:30 - 01:38:15

("Gaia Chant" by Pisces Projekt from the album Planets plays)

Ahura:

Alright. That was "Gaia Chant" by Pisces Projekt and you can also download this particular song, it is a song of power and basically what it was made for was to help people reach their primal force, particularly women, to help them reach that primal force. As you all know, I am half Maori and this particular language that I developed is not necessarily Te Reo nor is it Swahili or any of the language, but it is all of them, I kind of burrowed from all of them and mixed them together and decided, "Now what would that actually sound like?" If you took many of the languages that there are, whether that be a Polynesian language, a Asian language, a African language, Hispanic language, if you kind of mused them up together, even some of the Celtic languages, and just kinda mixed them up together, what would they actually sound like? Now, in my particular culture, there is something that is done by men that is called "Haka" and in this particular case, I decided to do something that women could do. I don't speak Te Reo, but I am learning and it's going to take me quite some time but in this particular case, I developed this language and I called it basically "Gaia Speak" and that's what I did, it's world talk, in other words, it's all of the languages kind of mish-mashed up together but I'm sure there are those of you that have heard different words that are actual physical languages. I just took them and put them all together to see what they would sound like and it came out quite beautifully. Also, it also brought out this wonderful power to people, if you play this over and over again, it'll help you surmount some of your problems. It will help you get through some of your difficulties. It will also help you to develop your own strength. It works wonderfully if you're doing something like working out, it's awesome. Now, you can order this song on the Unicorn 1 Records site, all you have to do is go to www.Unicorn1Records.com and you can find this song among many other of the songs that we have written. That is Pisces Projekt, that is Ahura Z, that is Zakhur and that is Master Zi Chi and you will find a whole cavalcade of songs there that will help you through your day. All of them are quite positive, I don't do negativity. My songs are non-toxic and you will enjoy them all.

Now, I'm going to get back to a question here and who do we have a question from?

01:41:03

Kazi:

Well, we have a quick question from Supernatural Radio and then we have another question from...

Ahura:

Okay. Supernatural radio? Awesome.

Kazi:

Yeah, we have a new listener! And they ask, "Ahura, my question is, I have always believed in magic and people think I'm crazy a lot of the time. What do you say?"

Ahura:

I say that you're sane if you believe in magic because magic happens everyday. As my teacher used to tell me, she would say, you know "people always say that that's impossible but the impossible happens daily. It's the improbable that takes longer to happen but it definitely does happen". Think about the things that have accomplished in this particular world, that are being accomplished in this particular moment. Far back, we use to call everything magic. And in truth, if you're taking something that comes from mentality or taking something that comes from energy and you're bringing it into physical form, that is a type of magic. And whether or not someone agrees with it or thinks that you're crazy is irrelevant. The truth is your belief should be what it is that you validate. Now, if that belief can be made practical, then that's the best. However, if your belief doesn't have any practicality to it at all, it can't be used in any way shape or form then I suggest that your re-evaluate it. But as far as I'm concerned, yes, magic exists. Magic exists every single day. I mean think about it just for a second, even we as human beings are magical, we don't have any strings. There's not rods that are holding us up, we stand, we walk, we talk, we want, we run, we see, we think, we hear, we eat, every single day. If that's not some form of magic, I don't know what it is. And this is basically the truth, you have to think about these things. A lot of times, we like to put science and magic at odds with each other but actually, they belong together. You can't have science without magic and you can't have magic without science and that's just the truth of it. Now whether or not there are people out there that like to open their little textbooks and agree with me or not, look at me, or hear me, I don't care. The bottom line is that magic exists, I don't think that you're crazy and no one should think that you're crazy. But like I said, if you were rich, they'd think you were just eccentric.

Magic exists, for those of you that think that it doesn't, that's gotta be a really sad life that you live in to believe that magic doesn't exist. Something is holding this Earth in the place that it is and don't tell me about magnetism because I understand magnetism as well, but think about it just for a second. Someone had to create all of this stuff. There are all of these different planets out there. There are all of these different stars and solar systems. What's the purpose, just for our entertainment so we can send a bunch of giant telescopes up into the air so we can say, "Oh yeah, that's there." That's bologna. The bottom line is magic does exist. I'm one of those people that does magic and my spells do work. And I know that there are a lot of people out there that can say the same. So tell them, if they think you're crazy, tell them it's crazy not to think that magic exists. That's the way that I think about it. I hope that helps. What do you got for me?

01:44:27

Kazi:

This next question is from our Skype listeners and this person asks, "I have this heaviness feeling inside of me, I guess I feel like a bunch of jigsaw puzzle pieces that never fit just right. Every pretty picture I've created was forced. I'm having memory lapses. I don't know what has happened to me and that scares me. I have always had fears and insecurities. I just want to fix everyone and everything but at the same time I am screaming on the inside, begging for someone to fix me. I just spend all of my time worrying. Can you help me? Why am I having all my nightmares every night, I'm somewhere and I'm wandering, searching for something I can't name and I'm always hunting, the man I love is always at risk and I never get there in time."

Ahura:

You're human. That's the first answer I'm going to give you. The second is, I understand. There's something on the inside of you that needs to be developed that you have absolutely no way of developing. Not only that, you don't see anybody around you that is capable of developing it or helping you with it and that's why you're frustrated. The reason that you feel helpless is because you feel as though this particular energy is growing bigger and bigger and you don't know what to do with it, so you're scared. And the moment that you get scared, you get emotional, when you get emotional, you can't think and when you can't think, you can't see and when you can't see, you can't react or respond. So you're frozen and that's one of the worst places to be in, especially if there's a gifted person on the inside of you. If you're forcing these pretty pictures to happen, then it means that there is something that is so traumatic on the inside of you that is happening that you're just not willing to face it. Mainly because you don't have the proper guidance. You're going to have to find some form of guidance and you're gonna have to stick with that form of guidance until it yields to you or yields what you need.

The problem is, you're not getting what you need. Whether that's coming from an educational system, because I'm willing to bet you're a young person, or that comes because someone in your family dropped the ball with you. But when they dropped the ball with you, they dropped the ball hard and just left you on the court and you're trying to find some reason why. What you need to do is just face the fact, the fact is, you need help. I know that we're all told that we're suppose to survive on our own and stand on our own two feet but sometimes, you need someone to help you. And as far as the man that you are in love with, being at risk in your dreams or in your thoughts all of the time, you have to see whether or not you're the one putting that person at risk or are they putting themselves at risk and you're accompanying that risk or enabling it or maybe you can do something about it. But you can't do something about it from an emotional standpoint. So, here's what I'm going to recommend. If you feel that you need to call me and I suggest that you do, I can give you some valid steps, some very concrete steps, but you'll have to follow them. You'll have to make a decision to follow them or not to follow them. I'm hoping that you do follow them. You need something that will unite your physicality and your mentality and hopefully bring you to a point of logic so you're no longer just reacting emotionally. You have to react logically to things and then respond. The reason you feel like a jigsaw puzzle is because there's so many areas that you want to delve into but have absolutely no way of reaching them so it's kind of like looking at all of this wonderful stuff to eat and you're starving but you can't get to it because there's a giant plate of glass that is between you and it and no matter how hard you bang on it, it won't break. So what we have to do is stand back and find where the door is, so you can enter into this place. So give us a call. I'd be more than happy to help you and help you to reach what it is that you're looking for. Just be real about it though. And if you decision to do something about it, don't go out the backdoor because I'm willing to bet also that you've asked for help before. And then when the person tried to help you, you ran away. Don't do that. Stand your ground.

And to directly answer your question, yes, I can help you. So, I've given you some steps. I hope they help you. Alright, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to actually end tonight's session, and I hope you've all very much benefited from what it is that we've offered here and if you feel that you really like what it is that we're offering on this on this radio show, that you will help us to keep doing shows. If you go to the Ask the Unicorn site, that's www.AskTheUnicorn.com and make a donation, that can be made by Paypal or however you'd like to send the donation. That will enable me to do more shows of this particular nature. I know that you all have spiritual answers. This is what I do for my living, not my hobby, so if you wanna see more of this, help me help you. I'm Ahura Z. This is Ask The Unicorn. Keep your questions, for those of you that I didn't get to, I will make sure that I get to you next week. Tell your friends about this. The more listeners that we have, the better. And I will be doing this every single week. God willing, Goddess willing. As I said, I'm Ahura Z., this is Ask The Unicorn, you're on the air live with Ahura Z. Goodnight everyone, have a brilliant week, I hope it is a magnificent week for you. Night night.

Announcer:

You've been listening to Ask The Unicorn Live with Ahura Z. Diliiza. If you have a personal matter you need help with, Ahura offers private telepathic readings and telepathic spiritual counseling by phone and Skype. Ahura also teaches private classes and an array of classes online using Skype video. You can learn more by visiting our website at www.AskTheUnicorn.com, where you can also hear archived episodes of our show and subscribe to our blog. If you have a question for Ahura to answer on a future episode of Ask

The Unicorn, you can contact us via our website or e-mail it to questions@asktheunicorn.com and we'll add it to the list for our next show. Ask The Unicorn broadcasts live every Wednesday night at 8pm US eastern standard time on Blog Talk Radio. That's BlogTalkRadio.com/AskTheUnicorn.

("Zwingin" by Ahura Z. plays)